

Hello whoever might find this.

If you are reading this, then I'm dead, and I'm sorry, but however it was, it wasn't an accident. I have been going against some powerful people. I have dirt on them and have been threatened. I didn't think they knew who I was till the police came to arrest me. I'm so positive it was them, and since then the threats have been getting worse. I'm so close to exposing them, but that's why I'm writing this. I have a usb pen in my room. It's no doubt been taken at this point, but in case it hasn't, I hid it in the small hole under the stairs right by the door. It has my latest backup of all the stuff I have on them. If it isn't by the entrance, it's gone. Don't worry, that just means they'll leave you all alone. You shouldn't have to worry about them anymore. I doubt they'll go after those I care for after my death.

SO what I wanted to talk about was my death. I doubt it's an accident, but that's how it'll be shown, or as a suicide. I want it to be clear I AM NOT SUICIDAL AND NEVER PLAN ON KILLING MYSELF. I tried to once a few years ago, and in that moment I realised I couldn't do it. I could NEVER DO IT unless there is a reason, like if I don't do it someone I care for will die. In which case, AND ONLY IN THAT CASE, I will do it. And I'm sure they can get away with anything. If anything about my death was suspicious however, please leave it alone. I don't want my loved ones hurt, and I imagine if you are reading this you are my loved one too (or you're the bastards who killed me in which case kys <3). SO now that we've got that bombshell out of the way. My last letter to you.

My name is Remus. I am currently 19. I love my life for the shit hole it currently is. I have dealt with A LOT of shit, but who hasn't. I love so much. I love my family, my friends, I love Katya. I love my cats (especially you Zoey). I love Attack on Titan, I love Doctor Who, I love South Park, I love Math, and Physics and Engineering. I think if given a chance I could help the world. It's what I want to do. I wanna put my all into helping others. Into studying what I don't understand. Into building dumb shit. I love art and music and animation and EVERYTHING!!! There is so much I wanna live for, so I hope this message never gets read. I hope I live and get to live longer and longer till I die NATURALLY, but I honestly doubt that. Enough about me though!

Time for messages!

To Mummy, I love you. You are such a good mum. Genuinely, you have been through so much and you don't deserve this. I am sorry. I love you, and I hope you get as rich as you should be. I hope you live a long happy life. You are genuinely THE BEST person I have ever met. You are fantastic, and I know you will get through this, but it'll be rocky. I love you. I cannot understate that. I LOVE YOU. You deserve the absolute BEST. I will always be with you, to infinity and beyond.

To Daddy, I have so many fond memories to look back on. I love watching shows with you, and the last few weeks have honestly been quiet nice staying with you. This will be hard for you, but please don't relapse. That will make everything worse for everyone. I know I don't say it enough, but I love you!

To Ryan, I don't know what to say. You and I are so close. We talk about everything together. I loved playing games with you, even the dumb ones we played once, or all the Bedwars we lost because of how bad you were at defending. You have so much potential, and I think you aren't reaching it. I think you're holding yourself back. I see you like me, just not as smart, or handsome, or tall. I love you!

To Caragh, this is gonna be hard. I miss how close we used to be, and I'll never forget it. I know you have what it takes to get Coby back. Go on the straight and narrow, and ditch the toxic people in your life. Please don't take my death as an excuse. Build yourself up and become a better person because of it.

To Lulu, we used to be so close. I remember cleaning your room so I can sleep in it with you and watching Keith Lemon. They are dumb but fond memories I have. I loved playing dumb games on Roblox with you, and I love the kids. Genuinely, you are such a good Parent. Please offer everyone else some help in this time. My death will hurt you, but I hope it brings everyone together. ALSO I don't know where my VR is. I said you can have it if ever I died before you. I just never thought it would happen so soon. I love you!

To Molly, remember all those games we used to play. It's dumb, but I look back on you hitting me because I won those games really well. Bomb It and Bad Ice Cream and Roblox!! Remember that one game that was like a house falling down and for some reason we were obsessed with it. Or Survive the Disasters, and you bought the tier pass back when you had Tix, so everytime we joined you had it already (that was bullshit btw). I remember us playing Gartic Phone and making fun of you because you'd never be a good mum. Guess what happened next? You have become such a good mum, and I know Tommy will grow up to be a great kid! I love you and Tommy so much!

To Cuan, you are a bastard... kidding...mostly. Having someone close to you die this young is gonna hurt, especially with GCSEs around the corner. I have so many fond memories with you despite how much of a dick you were. You will hurt for a while, and please talk about it to everyone, because otherwise you will hurt more and more. But like I said for Ryan, you have so much potential. I think you should follow art to be honest, but hey do what you want, just please focus on school. These next two years are gonna be important. After that nothing matters. Do what you want, and of course I love you!

To JJ, these have all hurt, but yours hurts differently. I feel like this might hurt you alot. Please talk to others when you need to. You remind me of myself to be honest. You are so sensitive. You'll get by in life, just try and have as much fun as possible. AND DONT LET PEOPLE CONTROL YOU! And try to watch everything I like, because everyone else has a horrible taste and you and me have excellent taste. Plus you can have my books and mangas cause you are cool ;). I love you!

To Coby, you have been through alot. You are strong, and I know you can get past this too. I dont know what will happen in life, but you will be able to stand on top no matter what. No matter what gets thrown at you, you will be able to keep going. Plus you are freakishly physically strong, so that helps. I love you, and so does everyone else.

To Alexis, I dont know if anyone will contact my friends for my funeral. I dont know if they can get in contact with you, but if they can I'll be happy. Ive talked vaguely about stuff that happened to me, about my old friend group, and I lost them all. I loved going to school, but even more so I loved going to school with you. You are such a good friend, and I loved meeting you and talking to you. Your TikToks are always to funniest (sorry for TikTok streak, I probably cant keep that up in the afterlife, bad signal). You are so funny, and smart and strong, and you are one of the best people I know. You'll get far, further than most. I'm SO glad I got to meet you and (obviously in a platonic way) I love you!

To leesha, like I said to Alexis, I didnt have friends for such a long time. I'm so glad my first ones I got were you two. I miss the Fridays we would play pool and arcade for hours. I miss the period where we could skip class and do fun shit. I loved going up to yours and getting drunk. Holly has always been amazing, and so has your Mum. Hopefully school doesnt fuck you over again because life just loves to mess with you, but that doesnt matter because you will get there eventually. I hope you have a great life. I (obviously platonically again) love you!

Finally, to my dearest Katya, I dont regret anything with you. I love you so much. I wish we got to be happy a little longer. But in my times since meeting you, I have shown you off to everyone I know because I wanted them to know how AWESOME YOU ARE, and how pretty MY girlfriend is, and how smart she is. And GOD I genuinely cannot put it into words how I feel about you. I love you. MWAH, a thousand MWAHS. Its gonna hurt, but I hope you can get past this and remember me as a fond memory in your life (you will never forget about me as Im your most awesome boyfriend who will never get replaced, or atleast never truly). Visit places for me and have the best life you can have! I with all my heart Love you!

I hope my funeral is funny. I dont want sad. I want it to be fun. Talk about all the fond memories of me and never forget who I was. ALSO as many people know I dont really believe, like at all. I am happy with a Catholic funeral and stuff. That is perfectly fine. BUT I do want my photo to be kept for generations incase its like the movie Coco and when the memory of me dies I die. Because even if its not like Coco (I dont know why Im referencing this movie either 3/10 death letter). We do have two deaths. When we die and when we are last remembered. SO DONT FORGET ME!!! As for where Im buried, I dont care. Anywhere I can be visited. I understand if Im not visited all the time. Even just once a year is fine, dont worry. I like Roses, so if you get me flowers then roses will be awesome. ACTUALLY plant roses on my grave, that will be SO COOL. And near Halloween plant Pumpkins. I love pumpkins! And when I say plant roses on my grave I mean like in the middle where my body is, not by the sides. AND (YES IM RAMBLING THIS IS MY DEATH NOTE (no I did not mean to write Death Note but hey thats cool)). Put my ID in my pocket before Im buried and give me a fully charged phone so if I ever come back to life I can ring for help, and if I comeback in a thousand years Ill have my ID as a way to be like LOOK HOW OLD I AM!!! Genuinely this is how I wanna be remembered, as fun as possible and for me being me :)

(Also everyone in the family owes Mummy a £5 scratchcard, use my death to get richhhhh)

SO, to sum up, bad guys probably killed me. I love you all. Make my funeral fun as FUCK and make my grave look cool as FUCKKKK. Its been a crappy life made good because of all of you. BYEEEEEEEE!!!!!!
